

CONCERT

Portraits of Women

This concert, already performed in Munich on March 8, 2024, in honor of International Women's Day, by three musicians and a reader, aims to pay tribute to the female composers and musicians who, for several centuries, had to fight to have their talent recognized as artists and creators in a society essentially ruled by men. Muses? Muses? At worst, housewives. Women's struggle has continued to the present day.

and Francoise Alquier-Ceretto, reader and narrator, accompanied by Jacques Barville. Works by Maria von Paradis, Clara Schumann, Fanny Hensel Mendelsohn, Pauline Viardot, Lili Boulanger, Henriette Renié, and Nadia Gubaidulina, not to mention some works by their friends, brothers, teachers, and composers who supported and sometimes inspired them (Fauré and Debussy, for example) and recognized their immense talent. This concert will conclude with some contemporary surprises that we all love.

This concert-reading will take place on Sunday, August 10th at 5 p.m. at the Château de Rieux-Minervois.

